Specify type of call:

The deceased had just assaulted his wife, shot and killed his neighbor and set his house on fire. Officers were dispatched to the location for the above reported situation. The deceased was also firing his weapon at officers upon their arrival. A perimeter was set up around the deceased location and the SWAT team was notified. In response to the above listed SWAT made the location and took up positions to protect the public. The deceased was set up on the front porch with a long gun utilizing furniture as concealment. As the residence became fully engulfed, a SWAT team member obtained a clear line of sight on the deceased lower extremities and fired two (2) shots to neutralize the threat.
