

A Message From:

CITY OF SAN ANTONIO
NEIGHBORHOOD & HOUSING SERVICES DEPARTMENT

An Eviction has been filed against you, now what?
You should do the following as soon as possible.

1. Call Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid for FREE legal help

Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid (TRLA) provides FREE legal help through San Antonio's Right to Counsel Program.

To apply for help Call: 210-212-3703 OR Email: Righttocounsel@TRLA.org

2. Ask about Housing Resources

If you are unable to pay rent, you may qualify for Housing Assistance. This offers up to 9 months of rental and utility assistance for those facing eviction. The program will seal eviction records for people they help. This means filing will be kept confidential.

To learn more about the resources, please apply online: <https://dhs.mendixcloud.com/p/Kinetech/GovTech/> or call 210-207-5910 _____

3. Appear in court on your court date

To avoid automatic judgement against you, you must appear in court the day of your hearing. Your hearing may be virtual or in person. You can request a virtual hearing by calling the court.

4. Know the status of your application on your court date

Check your application status online: <https://dhs.mendixcloud.com/p/Kinetech/GovTech/> or call 210-207-5910

Case managers are in court to help you.
If you have any additional questions
email evictionhelp@sanantonio.gov
or Dial 210-207-5910