

BIOGRAPHY

ROBERT ABE ABRAHAM

Robert Abe Abraham relocated to San Antonio from Minneapolis, Minnesota in 2005. Abe is fond of saying, “I wasn’t born in Texas, but I got here as fast he could.” Abe has capitalized on his business acumen as a sales and insurance professional to ensure that elected officials and city staff hear from community members.

Abe represents the community where he lives in various past and current volunteer leadership positions including:

- Northwest Neighbors Against Crime
- Citizens on Patrol (SAPD)
- Homeowners Association
- Child Advocates San Antonio
- Simpson Housing Services
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Minneapolis
- Sales and Marketing Professional Associations

As an at-large member of the San Antonio Housing Commission, Abe is committed to holding elected officials accountable for implementing a housing policy that meets San Antonio’s accelerating needs.
