

Teresa Brown

I'm a proud military brat, born in Oklahoma and primarily raised in San Antonio, Texas. My upbringing took me across the globe, having also lived in Germany, Kentucky, Hawaii, Oklahoma, and Virginia.

I'm the mother of two wonderful adult sons, both of whom are deeply involved in music and ministry—something that brings me immense joy.

Academically, I graduated from Sullivan University in Louisville, Kentucky, earning an Associate Degree in Office Management. My early career included roles such as Admissions Coordinator at the Towers at Park Lane Nursing Home, as well as secretarial positions at the UT Health Science Center and Round Rock ISD.

My journey in real estate began in August 2005 when I became a licensed Realtor. I earned my Broker's license in December 2009 and went on to establish my own firm, Brown Realty & Property Management, in April 2014. Since June 2010, I've also specialized in property management. Today, my brokerage includes six Realtors and one administrative assistant.

I am a proud member of several professional organizations, including:

- National Association of Realtors (NAR)
- Texas Association of Realtors (TAR)
- San Antonio Board of Realtors (SABOR)
- National Association of Residential Property Managers (NARPM)
- San Antonio Metropolitan Area Chapter of NARPM (SAMAC), where I currently serve as the 2025 Vice President
- Graduate Real Estate Institute (GRI Society)

My professional focus is Residential Sales and Property Management, and I'm passionate about helping clients navigate the real estate process with confidence, care, and integrity.
